KIEL NAVY MEMORIAL (30 m)

The Kiel Navy Memorial was inaugurated in 1936 in honour of the German sailors who died during the First World War.

The Memorial was returned by the British Occupational authorities to the German administration on the 38th anniversary of the Battle of Skagerrak.

The President of the German Marines Veterans, Captain Krietschmer (Navy Ace), dedicated the memorial to the sailors of all nations friend and former foes, whilst Vice-Admiral Heye in his speech advocated a united Europe.

Delegations from England, Scandinavia, Italy and USA and veterans of two world wars were present.
